

PLATINUM PLATINUM WITH REWARDS

VISA CREDIT CARD AGREEMENT

In this Agreement the words "you" and "your" mean each and all of those who agree to be bound by this Agreement; "card" means the Visa credit card and any duplicates, renewals, or substitutions the Credit Union issues to you; "account" means your Visa credit card line of credit account with the Credit Union, and "Credit Union" means the Credit Union whose name appears on this Agreement or anyone to whom the Credit Union transfers this Agreement.

1. USING YOUR ACCOUNT — If you are approved for an account, the Credit Union will establish a line of credit for you and notify you of your credit limit. You agree that your credit limit is the maximum amount (purchases, cash advances, finance charges, plus "other charges") which you will have outstanding on your account at any time. If you are over your credit limit, you must pay the amount you are over before payments will begin to restore your credit limit. You may request an increase in your credit limit only by a method acceptable to the Credit Union. The Credit Union has the right to reduce your credit limit, refuse to make an advance and/or terminate your account at any time for any reason not prohibited by law.

2. USING YOUR CARD — You understand that the use of your credit card will constitute acknowledgement of receipt and agreement to the terms of the Credit Card Agreement. You may use your card to make purchases from merchants and others who accept Visa cards. However, you may not use your card to initiate any type of gambling transaction. If you wish to pay for goods or services over the Internet, you may be required to provide card number security information before you will be permitted to complete the transaction. In addition, you may obtain cash advances from the Credit Union and from other financial institutions that accept Visa cards, and from some automated teller machines (ATMs). (Not all ATMs accept Visa cards.) To obtain cash advances from an ATM, you must use the personal identification number (PIN) issued to you for use with your card. You agree that you will not use your card for any transaction that is illegal under applicable federal, state or local law.

3. RESPONSIBILITY — You agree to pay all charges (purchases and cash advances) made to your account by you or anyone you authorize to use your account. You also agree to pay all finance charges and other charges added to your account under the terms of this Agreement or another agreement you made with the Credit Union. If this is a joint account, Section 17 also applies to your account. You cannot disclaim responsibility by notifying us, but we will close the account for new transactions if you so request and return all cards. If either parties close the account, the credit card(s) must be surrendered to the Credit Union. Should unauthorized use occur after the account is closed, the card will be picked up by a merchant, and you will be responsible for each $65 card recovery fee. Your obligation to pay the account balance continues even though an agreement, divorce decree or other court judgment to which we are not a party may direct you or one of the other persons responsible to pay the account.

4. FINANCE CHARGES — New purchases posted to your account during a billing cycle will not incur a finance charge for that billing cycle if you had a zero or credit balance at the beginning of that billing cycle, or you paid the entire new balance on the previous cycle's billing statement by the payment due date of that statement; otherwise a finance charge will accrue from the date a purchase is posted to your account. To avoid an additional finance charge on the balance of purchases, you must pay the entire new balance on the billing statement by the payment due date of that statement. A finance charge begins to accrue on cash advances from the date you get the cash advance.

The finance charge is calculated separately for purchases and cash advances. For purchases, the finance charge is computed by applying the daily periodic rate to the average daily balance of purchases. The daily periodic rate is equal to the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE in effect at anytime divided by 365. To get the average daily balance of purchases, we take the beginning outstanding balance of purchases each day, add any new purchases, and subtract any payments and/or credits. This gives us the daily balance of purchases. Then, we add all the daily balances of purchases for the billing cycle together and divide the total by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the average daily balance of purchases.

For cash advances, the finance charge is computed by applying the daily periodic rate to the average daily balance of cash advances. To get the average daily balance of cash advances, we take the beginning outstanding balance of cash advances each day, add in any new cash advances, and subtract any payments and/or credits that we apply to the cash advance balance. This gives us the daily balance of cash advances. Then, we add all the daily balances of cash advances for the billing cycle together and divide the total by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the average daily balance of cash advances. Balance transfers are calculated in the same manner as cash advances.

The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE is based on certain credit-worthiness criteria. The member's APR may be reviewed and changed annually based on credit history.

For the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE and daily periodic rate(s) that applies to your card, please refer to the separate insert that accompanies this Agreement.

The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE is subject to change on the statement cycle date of each month to reflect any change in the Index and will be determined by the U.S. Prime Rate as published in the Wall Street Journal as of the last day of each calendar month preceding each billing cycle. The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE will never be greater than 24.0% for Visa Platinum. Any increase in the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE will take the form of additional payments shown as Total Minimum Payments on the statement. Purchases, cash advances, and balance transfers will be charged 2.9 - 10.9 percentage point(s) for Visa Platinum or 5.9 - 13.9 percentage point(s) for Visa Platinum with Rewards above the variable rate. The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE will never be greater than 24.0% for Visa Platinum With Rewards. If the Index is no longer available, the Credit Union will choose a new index which is based upon comparable information.

5. OTHER FEES AND CHARGES — Other fees and charges that will be added are as shown below. The fees will be handled by the Credit Union as an adjustment to the account balance and will not be charged a finance charge. There is no fee for balance transfers and conveniences checks. You will be charged a $2 fee for each copy of a draft or monthly statement that you request from us except for billing errors.

In addition to the finance charges calculated above, a FINANCE CHARGE of 1.5% of the cash advance will be charged for each cash advance. The maximum Cash Advance transaction fee is $50.

The minimum finance charge is $0.50.

6. PAYMENTS — Each month you must pay at least the minimum payment shown on your statement by the date specified on the statement or no later than 25 days from the statement closing date whichever is later. If your statement says the payment is "Now Due," your payment is due no later than 25 days from the statement closing date. You may pay more frequently, pay more than the minimum payment or pay the total new balance in full. If you make extra or larger payments, you are still required to make at least the minimum payment each month your account has a balance (other than a credit balance). The minimum payment is 2.5 percent of your total new balance, or $25.00, whichever is greater, plus the amount of any prior minimum payments that you have not made, and any amount you are over your credit limit. The Credit Union also has the right to demand immediate payment of any amount by which you are over your credit limit.

7. PAYMENT ALLOCATION — Subject to applicable law, your payments may be applied to what you owe the Credit Union in any manner the Credit Union chooses.

8. PLEDGE OF SHARES — If you give the Credit Union a specific pledge of shares by signing a separate pledge of shares, your pledged shares will secure your account. You may not withdraw amounts that have been specifically pledged to secure your account until the Credit Union agrees to release all or part of the pledged amount. In addition, your account is secured by all other shares you have in any individual or joint account with the Credit Union, except for shares in an Individual Retirement Account or in any other account that would lose special tax treatment under state or federal law if given as security. You authorize the Credit Union to apply the balance in your individual or joint share accounts to pay any amounts due on your account if you should default. Collateral securing other loans you have with the Credit Union may also secure this loan, except that a dwelling will never be considered as security for this account, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other agreement.

9. SECURITY INTEREST — To secure your account, you grant the Credit Union a purchase money security interest under the Uniform Commercial Code in any goods which you purchase through the account. Furthermore, you grant us a security interest in any goods which you purchase through the account for the purpose of securing any other indebtedness which you owe the Credit Union now or which you incur in the future, except real estate mortgage loans. If you default under the terms of this agreement or under the terms of any other loan agreement with the Credit Union, except a real estate mortgage loan, we will have the right to recover any of these goods, regardless of whether or not they have been paid for through application of your payments in the manner described in paragraph (6). This account will also be secured by the collateral for any other loan or loans which you may have with the Credit Union at this time or any time in the future, except real estate mortgage loans. The security interest described herein also secures all costs and expenses including attorneys' fees in collecting any indebtedness owed to Argonne Credit Union other than a real estate mortgage loan.

10. DEFAULT — You will be in default if you fail to make any minimum payment or other required payment by the date that it is due. You will be in default if you break any promise you make under this Agreement. You will be in default if you die, file for bankruptcy or become insolvent, that is, unable to pay your obligations when they become due. You will be in default if you make any false or misleading statements in any credit application or credit update. You will also be in default if something happens that the Credit Union believes may substantially reduce your ability to repay what you owe.

You agree to pay reasonable collection expenses, including card recovery fee, attorney's fees, court costs and/or collection agency fees, and costs to the extent allowed by applicable laws or regulations. You understand that a contingency or hourly fee arrangement may be established under an agreement entered into by the Credit Union with an attorney and/or collection agency to collect amount due under this agreement if you are in default and you hereby agree that any such fee arrangement is reasonable.

When you are in default, the Credit Union has the right to demand immediate payment of your full account balance without giving you notice. If immediate payment is demanded, you agree to continue paying finance charges at the periodic rate charged before default, until what you owe has been paid, and any shares that were given as security for your account may be applied towards what you owe.

11. LIABILITY FOR UNAUTHORIZED USE-LOST/STOLEN CARD NOTIFICATION — You agree to notify our processor, PSCU, immediately or in writing at P.O. Box 31112, Tampa, FL 33631-31112 or telephone 800-449-7728 twenty-four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days a week, of the loss, theft, or unauthorized use of your credit card. You may be liable for the unauthorized use of your credit card. You will not be liable for unauthorized use that occurs after you notify us of the loss, theft, or possible unauthorized use. You will have no liability for unauthorized purchases made with your credit card, unless you are grossly negligent in the handling of your card. In any case, your liability will not exceed $50.

12. CHANGING OR TERMINATING YOUR ACCOUNT — The Credit Union may change the terms of this Agreement from time to time. Notice of any change will be given in accordance with applicable law. If permitted by law and specified in the notice to you, the change will apply to your existing account balance as well as to future transactions.

Either you or the Credit Union may terminate this Agreement at any time, but termination by you or the Credit Union will not affect your obligation to pay the account balance plus any finance and other charges you owe under this Agreement. You are also responsible for all transactions made to your account after termination, unless the transactions were unauthorized.

The card or cards you receive remain the property of the Credit Union and you must recover and surrender to the Credit Union all cards upon request or upon termination of this Agreement whether by you or the Credit Union. The Credit Union has the right to require you to pay your full account balance at any time after your account is terminated, whether it is terminated by you or the Credit Union. If this is a joint account, Section 17 of this Agreement also applies to termination of the account.

13. CREDIT REVIEW AND RELEASE OF INFORMATION — You authorize the Credit Union to investigate your credit standing when opening or reviewing your account. You authorize the Credit Union to disclose information regarding your account to credit bureaus and creditors who inquire about your credit standing. If your account is eligible for emergency cash and/or emergency card replacement services, and you request such services, you agree that we may provide personal information about you and your account that is necessary to provide you with the requested service(s).

14. RETURNS AND ADJUSTMENTS — Merchants and others who honor your card may give credit for returns or adjustments, and they will do so by sending the Credit Union a credit slip which will be posted to your account. If your credits and payments exceed what you owe the Credit Union, the amount will be applied against future purchases and cash advances. If the credit balance amount is $1.00 or more, it will be refunded upon your written request or automatically after six (6) months.

15. ADDITIONAL BENEFITS/CARD ENHANCEMENTS — The Credit Union may from time to time offer additional services to your account, such as travel accident insurance, at no additional cost to you. You understand that the Credit Union is not obligated to offer such services and may withdraw or change them at any time.

16. Foreign Transactions — Visa. Purchases and cash advances made in foreign currencies will be debited from your account in U.S. dollars. The exchange rate between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing international transactions is a rate selected by Visa from a range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate Visa itself receives or the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. The exchange rate used on the processing date may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase date or cardholder statement posting date.

A FOREIGN CURRENCY CONVERSION CHARGE of 1.0 percent of the amount of the transaction, calculated in U.S. dollars, will be imposed on all foreign transactions, including purchases, cash advances and credits to your account. A foreign transaction is any transaction that you complete or a merchant completes on your card outside of the United States, with the exception of U.S. military bases, U.S. territories, U.S. embassies or U.S. consulates.

17. MERCHANT DISPUTES — The Credit Union is not responsible for the refusal of any merchant or financial institution to honor your card. The Credit Union is subject to claims and defenses (other than tort claims) arising out of goods or services you purchase with the card if you have made a good faith attempt but have been unable to obtain satisfaction from the merchant or service provider, and (a) your purchase was made in response to an advertisement the Credit Union sent or participated in sending to you; or (b) your purchase cost more than $50 and was made in your state or within 100 miles of your home.

18. JOINT ACCOUNTS — If this is a joint account, each person on the account must sign the Agreement (by signing on the application). Each of you will be individually and jointly responsible for paying all amounts owed under this Agreement. This means that the Credit Union can require any one of you individually to repay the entire amount owed under this Agreement. Each of you authorizes the other(s) to make purchases or cash advances individually. Any one of you may terminate the account and the termination will be effective as to all of you.

19. EFFECT OF AGREEMENT — This Agreement is the contract which applies to all transactions on your account even though the sales, cash advances, credit or other slips you sign or receive may contain different terms.

20. NO WAIVER — The Credit Union can delay enforcing any of its rights any number of times without losing them.

21. STATEMENTS AND NOTICES — Statements and notices will be mailed to you at the most recent address you have given the Credit Union. Notice sent to any one of you will be considered notice to all. You are responsible for your minimum monthly payment even in the event your statement is late or returned to the Credit Union.

22. FINAL EXPRESSION — This Agreement is the final expression of the terms and conditions of this Visa line of credit between you and the Credit Union. This written Agreement may not be contradicted by evidence of any alleged oral agreement.

23. PERSONAL IDENTIFICATION NUMBER (PIN) — We will furnish you with a personal identification number (PIN). You agree to keep the PIN secret. You also agree you won't write the PIN on the Card or anything you keep with the Card. Your use of the PIN and Card in getting a cash advance or making a purchase is agreed to constitute your signature for purposes of such transaction.

24. COPY RECEIVED — You acknowledge that you have received a copy of this Agreement.

25. BY USING YOUR CARD YOU AGREE TO BE BOUND BY THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT.

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS KEEP THIS NOTICE FOR FUTURE USE

This notice contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

Notify Us In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill —

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us on a separate sheet at the address listed on your bill. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number.
- The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.

If you have authorized us to pay your credit card bill automatically from your savings or share draft account, you can stop the payment on any amount you think is wrong. To stop the payment, your letter must reach us three (3) business days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice —

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten (10) days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill. And, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is.

If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.

Special Rule for Credit Card Purchases —

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. There are two (2) limitations on this right:

- You must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and
- The purchase price must have been more than $50.

These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.
